Lalanah Vaughn is the Director of Fine Arts for Choral and Theatre activities at Tipton-Rosemark Academy, where she has been working for 22 years. She began her tenure at TRA in 1999 as the elementary music teacher and the coordinator of the Middle and High School Choir program. She currently directs the High School and Middle School National Award-winning Concert Choirs and Show Choirs, as well as, the Middle School and High School Drama productions. In 2018, Lalanah received a U.S. Congressional commendation from the House of Representatives and Honorable Diane Black for her 20 plus years of service at Tipton-Rosemark Academy as Fine Arts Director and her advocacy for the Arts in Tennessee and across the U.S.. In that same year, Lalanah and her husband Cary, were selected as Millington Star's

"Man and Woman of the Year" for their faithful service and leadership roles in the Millington community and the Mid-South area.

Lalanah is a 1992 who's who graduate of Lambuth University with a Bachelors in Vocal Performance. She was the 1991 Miss Lambuth University and represented the University in the Miss Tennessee America Pageant. While at Lambuth, she spent much of her time performing with the Lambuth Theatre Department. Throughout her theatre career, she has performed in over 30 musical productions with such theaters as the Springer Opera House in Columbus, Ga., Springwood Theatre in West Point, Ga., Jackson Theatre Guild in Jackson, Tn., Bellevue Baptist in Memphis, Tn. and most recently Playhouse 51 in Millington, Tn, where she revived the role of "Patsy Cline" in A Closer Walk with Patsy Cline (2011).

Lalanah has been selected six times by the Tennessee Governor's School for the Arts as an "Outstanding Music Educator in Tennessee." She served as President for the West Tn. Vocal Music Educators Association 2014-2016 and is currently serving on the WTVMEA Executive Council and Music Education Council. She is a member of MENC (National Association for Music Education), TNMEA (Tennessee Music Educator's Association), ETA Educational Theatre Association and is a 2012/ 2015 Alumni of the Tennessee Arts Academy for Fine Arts. Lalanah has directed 40 shows with the TRA Theatre Department and she is a six-time nominee for the Orpheum Theatre's "Outstanding Musical Direction" Award. In 2018, TRA's "Crazy For You" under her direction was nominated for 12 Outstanding Orpheum HSMTA nominations and TRA won for "Best Choreography." In Spring 2016, she won the "Outstanding Music Direction" award for TRA's "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers", which was also nominated for "Best Over-all Production." TRA's world-premiere musical "An Evening with the Characters of Pride and Prejudice" under her direction, was also nominated for the Orpheum's 2015 "Best Over-all Production" and "Best Musical Direction" and she was nominated "Best Musical Direction" for TRA's 2017 "Oklahoma" and 2018 "Guys and Dolls." Many of her students have received national recognition in Music and Theatre. Lalanah has two Solo Contemporary Christian CD projects, three American Worship CDs and is a featured soloist on 7 of the Bellevue Baptist Choir CDs. She has been an active member of the Bellevue Sanctuary Choir, Women's Ministry Praise Team and a featured soloist on Sunday mornings for 25 years and now serves alongside her husband in ministry at Community Baptist Church in Rosemark, Tn.

She has been married 30 years to her husband Cary, who serves as CEO of Love Worth Finding Ministries in Cordova, Tn. and Pastor of Community Baptist Church. They have two children, daughter Logan (2011) and son Colton (2016), graduates of TRA. "I thank God for allowing me to work with the incredibly talented MS and HS students at TRA. My desire is to help each student discover and develop their God-given talents, while providing numerous opportunities for them to share those talents locally, regionally, nationally and world-wide for the Glory of God."

Logan Star Vaughn attended and graduated from Tipton Rosemark Academy in 2011. She has been performing since the age of 5, always having a passion for the fine arts, specifically music and theatre. She was a member of the award-winning TRA Show Choir, Women's Choir, Jazz Ensemble, Concert Choir and performed in 10 productions during her time at TRA. Logan has since gained a new love for the direction side, after directing at a private school in mobile Alabama, where she also attended University of Mobile to study Musical Theatre & Vocal Performance. Logan is currently a private voice & acting instructor and loves being back at her alma mater assisting her Mom, Lalanina Vaughn, with TRA Fine Arts.

Rachel Thomas is a graduate of the University of Memphis (c/o 2019), where she obtained her BFA in Theatre with a concentration in Musical Theatre. During her time at the U of M, she performed in seven productions and several vocal cabarets. She has also attended the Open Jar Institute in New York City and has interned with the Orpheum Theatre Group. Rachel is an alum of Tipton-Rosemark Academy (c/o 2015). She now works for Chad Stewart & Associates, Inc., as well as volunteering her time to assist Lalanina Vaughn in the Fine Arts Department. She would like to thank the incredible creative team and cast for all of their hard work, her coworkers at CSA for being so supportive, and her family and friends for their love and encouragement. She would also like to say a special thank you to Lalanina Vaughn for the opportunity to be involved with a program that is near and dear to her heart. Break a leg, cast!

Madison Clement is the daughter of Ron Clement and Amy and Jason Henning. She is a graduate of Tipton-Rosemark Academy and is an alumni from the Class of 2020. This is her first year on staff with the Rosemark Theatre Department, but she has performed in 18 of Rosemarks productions. While at Rosemark she was apart of the Jazz Choir, Women's Ensemble, Show Choir, and Mixed Choir. Some of her previous were Wednesday in The Addams Family, Babette in Beauty and the Beast, Nala in The Lion King, and a Follie in Crazy For You. Her Rosemark Theatre journey began in second grade when she was cast as Gretl in The Sound of Music. She received the 6 year award at All-west and 2 year at All-State. Madison will be attending Gould's Academy in the spring to study Cosmetology. She is filled with joy to be back in this amazing department and is excited to see what God has in-store for her. "I want to thank my family for always supporting me to do what I love and never letting me give up on my dreams. I love y'all mostest infinity. "For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and give his life a ransom for many." Mark 10:45

Thomas Nichols is a 5th year senior at the University of Memphis, obtaining his BS in engineering technology. Thomas is an alum of Tipton-Rosemark Academy, class of 2017. While only doing one show at TRA, Oklahoma, Thomas comes back for almost every show at Rosemark to help out behind the scenes. He would like to thank the cast and crew for letting him be apart of the show and widhes the cast a great show.

Caitlin Pfeifer (Teach Crew) graduated from Tipton-Rosemark Academy in May 2019. During her time at TRA, Caitlin participated in seventeen productions. She previously stage managed for Oklahoma, Guys and Dolls, Beauty and the Beast, Madagascar Jr., and a few others. She was a part of the tech crew for Crazy For You and The Addams Family. Caitlin is currently majoring in Political Science at the University of Memphis. She would like to thank Mrs. Lalanía for allowing her to continue to be a part of the productions, even after graduating from TRA.

Megan Pfeifer (Stage Manager) is a senior at TRA and has participated in six productions including The Lion King Jr., Elf the Musical Jr., and Alice in Wonderland Jr. She was a part of the stage crew for The Addams Family and Shrek the Musical Jr., and she was the Stage Manager for Bye Bye Birdie. She is a member of the Kindness Club, Drama Club, Art Club, and Beta Club. Megan would like to thank her family, friends, and Mrs. Lalanía for encouraging her and supporting her in every way possible. “I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.” Philippians 4:13

CAST BIOS

Brooke Cox (Mrs. Peacock) is the daughter of Wade and Susan Cox. She is thrilled to be participating in her 11th TRA production! Favorite past roles include Specs/Bowery Beauty in Newsies, an ensemble member in White Christmas, the Foosa Leader in Madagascar Jr., and Cleopatra (Ensemble) in The Addams Family. Outside of theatre Brooke is a part of the Art Club, Drama Club, and is the Student Council Co-Vice President as well as a Student Ambassador. She also plays soccer for TRA. Brooke participates in her church youth group and is a part of Crossnotes Youth Choir. Brooke would like to give a huge thank you to the TRA theatre family for the long hours, dedication, and love they pour into this program, we truly can't do this without you, and to my wonderful family, thank you for supporting me! Most of all thank you Lord for working in this place and people. Enjoy the show y'all!

Cade Harkness (Mr. Green) the son of Chad and Mindi Harkness of Barretville, TN. Cade is a sophomore, and this is his 9th TRA Fine Arts production including, Alice in Wonderland (Caterpillar), Madagascar (King Julien), Shrek Jr. (Shrek), Grease and Newsies. He has been a member of the TN All West Honor Choir for 4 years. He performed with the TMEA Honor Choir 2017-2018. Cade also received Best Male Cameo in 2020-2021 school year. He also received best actor his 8th grade year. Cade is a member of the JV gold team at TRA. He enjoys everything! - Thank you to Mrs.Lalania, Rachel T., Logan V., and Madison C. for always being fun and ALWAYS being supportive.- Cade

Cameron Long (Professor Plum) is the son of Kent and Patti Long. Cameron is a sophomore here at TRA. He has attended TRA since the 1st grade and has been a part of the fine arts since 5th grade. Cameron has been in Elf Jr., Alice in Wonderland Jr., and Madagascar Jr. In high school Cameron has participated in Bye Bye Birdie, Grease, and Newsies. Cameron is excited for this opportunity and would like to thank everyone for their support.

Carrie Grahek (Stage Crew) is 15 years old and is a new student at Tipton Rosemark Academy. She helps out backstage as the assistant stage manager for the play “Clue”. Carrie has not yet joined any sports but hopes to in the future. She also hopes to get more involved in school activities. Carrie has been involved in theater and has worked backstage at past schools. She hopes to continue doing so in other plays or musicals as much as she can. She is so glad to be part of “Clue” and is excited to be a part of more shows.

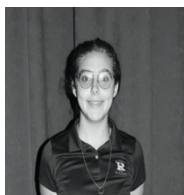

Eddie Dowden (Cop) is 18 and is in the 12th grade. This will be his 15th production at Tipton Rosemark Academy. He is so excited that he stayed in theatre. For the four years he has been here he says he feels more and more as if he is fitting in somewhere. He thanks some of the seniors that pushed him to be in the plays rather than just backstage crew and now he is so glad that he did because now he gets to be in Clue! Eddie has always enjoyed good murder mysteries, but the way Clue handles it with a comedic spin definitely adds some more lightheartedness to the dark situations. He is playing the cop, a roadblock in the group’s plan at leaving with their “innocence”. “This theatre session is going to be amazing. I can feel it, and hopefully the audience will feel it after coming to watch Clue.”
