BIOS

Lalania Vaughn - is the Director of Fine Arts for Choral and Theatre activities at Tipton-Rosemark Academy, where she has been working for 21 years. She began her tenure at TRA in 1998 as the elementary music teacher and the coordinator of the Middle and High School Choir program. She currently directs the High School and Middle School National Award-winning Concert Choirs and Show Choirs, as well as, the Middle School and High School Drama productions. Lalania and her husband Cary, were recently selected as the Millington Star's 2018 "Man and Woman of the Year" for Millington, Tn. for their faithful service and leadership roles in the Millington and Memphis communities. Lalania is a 1992 who's who graduate from Lambuth University with a Bachelor of Science in Vocal Performance. She was also the 1991 Miss Lambuth University and represented the University in the Miss Tennessee America Pageant. While at Lambuth, she spent much of her time performing with the Lambuth Theatre Department. Throughout her theatre career, she has performed in over 28 musical productions with such theaters as the Springer Opera House in Columbus, Ga., Springwood Theatre in West Point, Ga., the Jackson Theatre Guild in Jackson, Tn., Bellevue Baptist in Memphis, Tn. and most recently Playhouse 51 in Millington, Tn, where she revived the role of "Patsy Cline" in A Closer Walk with Patsy Cline (2011). Lalania has been selected six times by the Tennessee Governor's School for the Arts as an "Outstanding Music Educator in Tennessee." Last year, she also received a U.S. Congressional commendation for her 20 years of dedication to TRA Fine Arts and her service as an "Advocate for the Arts" across Tennessee and the U.S. She served as President for the West Tn. Vocal Music Educators Association 2014-2016 and is currently serving on the WTVMEA Executive Council and Music Education Council. She is a member of MENC (National Association for Music Education), TNMEA (Tennessee Music Educators Association), ETA Educational Theatre Association and is a 2012/2015 Alumni of the Tennessee Arts Academy for Fine Arts. Lalania has directed 32 shows with the TRA Theatre Department and she is a six-time nominee for the Orpheum Theatre's "Outstanding Musical Direction" Award. This past Spring, TRA's "Crazy For You" under her direction was nominated for 12 Outstanding Orpheum HSMTA nominations and TRA won for "Best Choreography." In Spring 2016, she won the "Outstanding Music Direction" award for TRA's "Seven Brides for Seven Brothers", which was also nominated for "Best Over-all Production." TRA's world-premiere musical "An Evening with the Characters of Pride and Prejudice" under her direction, was also nominated for the Orpheum's 2015 "Best Over-all Production" and "Best Musical Direction" and she was nominated "Best Musical Direction" for TRA's 2017 "Oklahoma" and 2018 "Guys and Dolls." Many of her students have received national recognition in Music and Theatre. Lalania has two Solo Contemporary Christian CD projects, three American Worship CDs and is a featured soloist on 6 of the Bellevue Baptist Choir CDs. She has been an active member of the Bellevue Sanctuary Choir, Women's Ministry Praise Team and a featured soloist on Sunday mornings for 25 years and now serves alongside her husband in ministry at Community Baptist Church in Rosemark, Tn. She has been married 28 years to her husband Cary, who serves as CEO of Love Worth Finding Ministries in Cordova, Tn. and Pastor of Community Baptist Church. They have two children, daughter Logan and son Colton. They were faithful members of Bellevue Baptist Church for 25 years serving in many areas of ministry and are thrilled to be now serving as Pastor & wife to Community Baptist Church in Rosemark, Tn."I thank God for allowing me to work with the incredibly talented MS and HS students at TRA. My desire is to help each student discover and develop their God-given talents, while providing numerous opportunities for them to share those talents locally, regionally, nationally and world-wide for the Glory of God."

Logan Star Vaughn (Assistant Music/Staging Director & Lighting Designer) attended and graduated from Tipton Rosemark Academy in 2011. She has been performing since the age of 5, always having a passion for the fine arts, specifically music and theatre. She was a member of the award-winning TRA Show Choir, Women's Choir, Jazz Ensemble, Concert Choir and performed in 10 productions during her time at TRA. Logan has since gained a new love for the direction side, after directing at a private school in mobile Alabama, where she also attended University of Mobile to study Musical Theatre & Vocal Performance. Logan is currently a private voice & acting instructor and loves being back at her alma mater assisting her Mom, Lalania Vaughn, with TRA Fine Arts.

Rachel Thomas (Technical Director) is a graduate of the University of Memphis, where she obtained her BFA in Theatre with a concentration in Musical Theatre. During her time at the U of M, she performed in seven productions and several vocal cabarets. In recent years, she has attended the Open Jar Institute in New York City and has also participated in the South Eastern Theatre Conference (SETC). She has interned with the Orpheum Theatre as a Summer Camp Group Leader for their youth Summer Camp Series. Rachel is an alum of Tipton-Rosemark Academy (Class of 2015). She is now a Teaching Assistant for Jen Ford in the elementary 3K class here at TRA, as well as assistant to Lalania Vaughn in the Fine Arts Department. She would like to thank Lalania for her years of mentor-ship and the opportunities Lalania has given her; her family for their constant support and encouragement; Logan Vaughn, Shelbi Sellers, and Rachel Vernon, for being so much fun to collaborate with; lastly, this incredibly talented cast for their time and hard work put into this show! Philippians 3:13-14.

Rachel Vernon (Choreographer) is from Bartlett and is a TRA c/o 2012 Alumna. She graduated from the University of Tennessee at Knoxville in 2016 with a Bachelor of Science degree. She has been working with TRA's Fine Arts program for 3 years. During her time she has choreographed for several shows such as White Christmas, Guys and Dolls, Beauty and the Beast, Addams Family, and her favorite Crazy For You, which received an HSMTA Award in 2019 for Outstanding Choreography, Rachel has an extensive background in dance.

having been continually training for 24 years. She grew up dancing competitively at the Dance Academy of Bartlett and continued dancing at UT Knoxville with the BOSS Dance Company. She has trained at various studios over the years including Broadway Dance Center, Millennium Dance Complex, and Ballet Memphis. Outside of choreographing, Rachel enjoys performing in local theatre productions. Her most recent shows include Mamma Mia (dancer, aerialist) at Theatre Memphis, Cats (Tantomile) at Theatre Memphis, and Memphis The Musical (dancer, ensemble) at Playhouse on the Square. She would like to thank God for blessing her every day, Lalania Vaughn for giving her this life-changing opportunity, her parents and brother Tyler (TRA c/o 2014), Shelbi Sellers (TRA c/o 2015), and all of the amazing fine arts students for continuing to support her and believe in her without you all, this would not be possible. Enjoy the show!

Shelbi Sellers (Assistant Choreographer) is an actress, singer, dancer, and choreographer from Memphis, TN and a TRA alum (2015). She holds a Bachelor of Music with a minor in theatre from the University of Memphis. During her time in undergrad, she sang with the Chamber Choir (section leader), University Singers, and Jazz Singers. She often performs as a guest artist with the U of M Southern Comfort Jazz Orchestra. On the stage, Shelbi has performed in 'Little Shop of Horrors' (Chiffon), 'Oklahoma!' (Virginia), 'Mamma Mia!', 'Head Over Heels' (regional premiere) and many more. In 2015, she was nominated for Best Lead Actress for her portrayal of Elizabeth Bennet in An Evening with the Characters of Pride and Prejudice' for the 2015 Memphis High School Musical Theatre Awards. This is Shelbi's 9th show choreographed at TRA. She would love to thank Mrs. Lalania for yet another amazing project to be a part of, her parents for their constant support, and Rachel Vernon her partner in crime. Micah 6:8

Who we are: Parents, grandparents, other loved ones invested in praying for our school, staff and students. Any grades - from 3K-12th.

When: Every Monday at 8:00am in room 4, in the middle school hallway.

Why: to cover our school, staff, and students with prayer. Each week we pray over specific events, pray for all the teachers by name and lift up our students. We also focus on a specific attribute of God during prayer.

Questions or prayer requests: email us at parentsinprayer@rebelmail.net

JAYCIE, We are so proud of you. BREAK A LEG!! Love, Mom, Dad and Levi
